How did you hear about the Scholarship? _____

One full scholarship in the amount of $1,220 is possible thanks to the generous support of five TMWW alumnae who want to share their positive and supportive experiences at TMWW with someone who has a love of writing, but would not be able to attend such an experience without financial assistance. While we do not ask for specific financial information, we ask applicants to self-certify that without financial assistance it will be difficult, if not impossible, for them to attend. This certification will be taken and accepted at face value.

The awards will be made at the discretion of the scholarship board based on both the merit of the work and financial need. Recipients must agree to allow their name and likeness used on the TMWW website, press releases, or other publicity materials. Any adult (over age 18) may apply.

Deadline for applications is March 6, 2023. Recipients will be notified by April 3, 2023.
